2018 Update – Membership/Registration Enhancements

Current Process for Members to Register for Meetings

- Secretary sends out meeting announcement
- Attendees go to IRD.net and register for meeting
 - Form is filled out
 - PayPal Payment

The Treasurer and Secretary get an email with the registration and a separate email confirming the PayPal payment processed.

This then triggers two additional manual processes

Secretary

1. Creates a spreadsheet to track the information for reporting
2. Verifies accuracy of registration
3. Works with Treasurer to correct registrations and verify head counts

If at any point information is not correct the process has to stop and additional emails and/or phone calls have to be made. These manual processes mean our “volunteers” are spending more than 20 hours a week Reprocessing registrations for each meeting.

Treasurer

1. Verifies payment has processed in PayPal
2. Opens QuickBooks and Verifies attendee is Member vs Non Member
3. Verifies Member is current on dues
4. Verifies Member information in QuickBooks is correct
5. Enters a sales receipt in QuickBooks
6. Sends receipts to attendees
7. Works with Secretary to verify head counts and registration accuracy

Why do we do that?

Each event is set up and costed based on head counts.

Room Set ups

Meal Counts

Final Costs to the IRD

The more accurate our up front information is the better we can manage our costs.

Can it be done better?

YES!

Video of the Month

Take Your Dog to Work Day was first celebrated in 1999 to celebrate our canine friends and encourage people to adopt their pets from humane societies and animal shelters.

Research has shown that there a ton of benefits to having animals in the workplace. According to a 2008 American Pet Products Manufacturers Association study, whether you have a dog, cat, bird, reptile, fish or another creature, the perks of pet-ownership — including lower blood pressure and reduced stress levels — often translate to an office space. Pets inherently create relaxing and creative work environments! Additionally, a 2006 APPMA survey showed that one in five companies allows pets in the workplace!

The screenshot displays the MemberClicks software interface. At the top, a navigation bar includes links for Community, Database, Forms, Reporting, Financial, and Settings. On the right, there are buttons for Log Out, Profile List, and Search. The main content area is divided into two sections. The left section contains a table with a header '[Name | Last]' and a list of names: Andrews, Barton, Bay, Bayne, Brewer, Brown, Clark, Clark, Clinton, Doe, Downs, Durrant, Fitz, Freese, and Fuchs. The right section contains a table with a header '[Member Type]' and a list of member types: Staff, Professional, Professional, Professional, Prospect, Individual, Corporate Sponsor Employee, Individual, and Staff. An 'Advanced Search' modal is open in the center. It has a title bar 'Advanced Search' and a toggle switch for 'Search by Attribute Value' which is currently 'ON'. Below this, there are three search criteria: '[Address | Home | Zip]' with the value '30319', 'PAC Donation' with the value '1000', and '[Last Modified Date]' with the value 'Last 30 Days'. There is an 'Add Criteria' button and a 'Match All Criteria' dropdown. Below the search criteria, there are two toggle switches: 'Search by Form Submissions' and 'Search by Event Status', both currently 'OFF'. At the bottom of the modal, there are buttons for 'Save Criteria', 'Clear', 'Cancel', and 'Search'.
